Hospital inpatient or observation outpatient

Every year, more Medicare beneficiaries are entering hospitals as observation patients. In a span of eight years, the number doubled to nearly 1.9 million.

If you have Medicare, ask

Your doctor may order observation services to help decide whether you need to be admitted to a hospital as an inpatient or can be discharged. During the time you're getting observation services in a hospital, you're considered an outpatient. That means you can't count this time towards the 3-day inpatient hospital stay needed for Medicare to cover your skilled nursing facility stay.
